From Car Salesman to Capuchin

Capuchin Candidate Vito Martinez, who was accepted into the Postulancy Program earlier this month, was recently the guest of Dick Gordon on National Public Radio's program The Story. Vito's 25 minute segment aired on NPR Thursday, May 15th. Gordon's series on life changing experiences explores Vito's move from being a car salesman to a Capuchin postulant. Vito provides a candid and personal view of his decision to leave his old life behind to become a Capuchin.

Does his story seem anything like your own? To listen to Vito's interview, visit <http://thestory.org/archive> and scroll to the Thursday, May 15th program listing. Click on the <<Listen Here>> link at the top of the day's listings. Vito's interview is the second on the program and begins at the 24:30 time marker.

Thanks, Vito, for sharing your story on The Story.
