Capuchin Vocation Update Province of St. Joseph

Triduum Retreat for Capuchin Candidates

(The Capuchin Vocation Office hosts a Triduum retreat every year for those thinking about becoming Capuchins. If you have never contacted the vocation office before, see the contact information at the bottom of this page.)

"The History of Salvation and Its Meaning in Our Lifetime"

April 1-4, 2010

St. Lawrence Seminary, Mt. Calvary, WI

Presenter: Gianluigi Pasquale, OFM Capuchin

Our celebration of the Triduum—Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter—invites us to reflect on the Paschal Mystery and the history of salvation. Fr. Gianluigi Pasquale, OFM Capuchin, will lead retreatants through 4 sessions discussing and exploring this theme. There will be time for discussion and ample time for prayer and meditation. Let the balance of prayer, the rich Triduum liturgies, input, and community create a space where the discernment of your vocation is fruitful and nourishing.

Gianluigi Pasquale is a Capuchin of the Veneto, Italy Province. Many friars know him from when he studied English while staying at St. Clare Friary in Chicago the summer of 2005. He holds a Research Doctorate in Theology from the Gregorian University in Rome and a Research Doctorate in Philosophy from the Università degli Studi "Ca' Foscari" in Venice. He is a professor at the Lateran Pontifical University in Rome and at the Theological Study Center in Venice, of which he is also President. Gianluigi is a member of the Centro Interuniversitario per gli Studi sull'Etica at the University of Venice and of the Scuola di Alta Formazione Filosofica at the University of Torino. He has written many works in theology, philosophy and spirituality. With the Italian equivalent of Pauline Press, he has published nine volumes on the letters of Padre Pio, translated into many foreign languages, and two on Francis of Assisi. In English, Gianluigi's book on Padre Pio's letters to spiritual directors is published as Secrets of a Soul: Padre Pio's Letters to His Spiritual Director by Pauline Press, 2002.
