Capuchin Vocation Update Province of St. Joseph

Easter Vigil: Candidate Triduum Retreat

(This is the first of three Vocation Updates that will cover the events of the Capuchin Candidate Triduum Retreat. This week we will focus on the Easter Vigil.)

Saturday was a day of prayer, input, and the most joyous celebration of the Risen Christ! By this point of the weekend, many of the retreatants had gotten to know one another well. The many liturgies throughout the three days had softened many hearts. The theological input from Gianluigi Pasquale, a Capuchin professor from Venice, had readied many minds. The Easter Vigil liturgy was the summit of a wonderful weekend and a grace filled liturgical year!

Vocation Update

The Post-Vigil Celebration

One of the Cap Corps volunteers, Jill, and a Capuchin inquirer, Nick, (to her right with the red sweatshirt) both celebrated birthdays! A small celebration at the Saturday meal honored the occasion.
